POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK. Oct. 8.—The Boston Red Sox took the first game of the world series from the Giants on the latter's home grounds today by a smashing batting rally in the seventh inning.

The pitching of Woods for the Red Sox was spectacular, the Boston wonder getting by with eleven strikeouts. Tesreau weakened in the seventh, and gave way to Crandall after having given a wonderful exhibition in which he held the Sox without a hit until the sixth, when Speaker lined out a lucky three bagger which Snodgrass touched but could not handle.

The Giants' scores came in the third inning when, after Devore had been passed and Doyle had hit a safe short fly to left, Murray then singled over second, scoring both.

In the seventh inning, Wagner

WAUZKA BANK IS ROBBED IN NIGHT

Four Masked Burglars Seen at Work by Family Who Lives Nearby

AFRAID TO GIVE THE SIGNAL
No Trace of Bandits Found; $800 in Silver Taken; Gold and Paper Untouched

Four burglars entered the Wauzeka bank, blew open the safe and escaped with $800 in silver early yesterday morning, while a family in a house nearby witnessed the crime without attempting to notify the authorities, fearing their home would be robbed if they left. The burglars worked over the safe for two hours before they succeeded in wrecking one of the compartments of the safe by means of an explosive.

Wearing masks and carrying flash lights and revolvers, the men entered the bank after midnight. They succeeded in wrecking one of the three compartments of the safe, but while the other two were damaged they were still intact and the gold and paper money, bonds and securities which they contained were untouched.

The noise caused by the explosion is believed to have decided the burglars to make their escape immediately instead of waiting to open the other two compartments of the safe.

Authorities Notified.
For nearly an hour after the burglars had made their departure, the family which had witnessed the robbery remained inactive, but with the light of approaching dawn they hurried to the home of the constable and told him of the burglary. He in turn notified W. A. Vaughan, president, and Herman Koch, cashier of the bank.

Upon arriving at the scene they found the safe almost entirely destroyed, while the floor was covered with pieces of steel from the safe, and a large amount of silver money of small denomination was scattered about the floor.

No Trace of Robbers.
Gathering up the scattered coins and leaving a guard to watch the safe, the men telephoned authorities in all the neighboring cities and villages, but although the entire day was spent in an attempt to trace the bandits, no clue was unearthed. It is probable that a meeting of the bank directors will be called for the purpose of offering a reward for their capture.

According to the story told by the persons who watched the robbery, two of the men remained near the front door of the building as a lookout, while the others worked upon the safe. They were unable to furnish a good description of the men owing to the darkness. It is believed that the work was accomplished by professional criminals.

Wauzeka is a small town, about fifteen miles east of Prairie du Chien and is situated in the Kickapoo valley.

INCOME TAX LAW MAY LOWER RATE

New Plan Proves Good Revenue Producer; Total of $77,284 Assessed in City

CORPORATION TAX $48,477
Rate on Real Estate to Remain the Same or May Be Lowered

That the income tax will more than come up to expectations as a revenue producer, at least as far as La Crosse county is concerned, and that the rate of taxation on real estate in this city will neither be raised or lowered because of the new law, is the prediction of authorities on questions of taxation today following the information obtained from the state tax commission that the corporation tax for the city of La Crosse will be $48,477.00. This together with the individual income tax of $28,807.27 which has already been reported by Income Tax Assessor J. E. Kelzer makes a total of $77,284.27 income tax which has been assessed against the citizens and corporations of this city.

Offset Estimated

From this amount 10 per cent will be deducted for the state and 20 per cent for the county leaving a net tax of 70 per cent for the city. Seventy per cent of $77,284.27 is $54,098.98. Although there is no way of figuring exact amount that will be deducted from this amount on account of the "offset" of personal property, a liberal estimate places this amount at about $20,000. This estimate is based on the figures that have been available on the individual income tax, which will net the city at least $15,000 out of a total of $25,000. It is reasonable to suppose that the city will obtain a proportionate amount from the corporation tax which would be $20,000 or a total of $35,000 from all sources of income tax.

May Lower Rate

Because of the fact that under the income tax law certain classes of personal property goods and other items formerly taxed, is exempt from taxation, the city's taxable property is reduced about $2,900.00. Assessed at the rate of 21 mills this would amount to about $46,000. Of this the city received a net return of 70 per cent or $32,200. This sum will be more than equaled by the $35,000 raised under the income tax law so that if any change in rate on real estate is advisable, it will be lowered.

The income tax assessment for the county as reported by the tax commission totals $82,384.18 of which $29,224.03 is individual income tax and $53,160.15 corporation income tax.

LIGHT COMPANY CONTROL SOLD TO OUTSIDERS

Large Sum Paid on Option to Take Over 90 Per Cent of $650,000 Capital Stock

PAR IS THE PRICE PAID
That Figure Contract Price for Both Common and Preferred Stock of Concern

Company Presumes that Buyer Figures to Consolidate Two Big Electric Concerns

That outside capital has purchased an option on a majority of the stock of the La Crosse Gas and Electric company is a statement made by stockholders of that company.

D. G. McMillan, president of the company, today declined to affirm or deny the story. "I cannot discuss the subject," was his only response to inquiries.

Despite the reticence of officials, however, enough is positively known to justify the publication of the following facts:

Stockholders holding an aggregate of approximately 90 per cent of the La Crosse Gas and Electric company preferred and common stock have sold an option to C. W. McGuire, who has made a payment said to have been $50,000. The price stated in the option is par for both preferred and common stock.

A second payment on the option is said to be due sometime in November.

Capital $650,000
The total stock of the company amounts to $650,000, of which D. G. McMillan owns more than 50 per cent. Other heavy stockholders are C. J. Felber, August L. Grams, P. M. Gelatt and Herman Tillman. Wm. Doerflinger recently disposed of his stock to one of the other stockholders.

The original stock issued at the time of the consolidation of the gas company, the Edison Light and Power company and the Brush Electric company, forming the La Crosse Gas and Electric company, was $600,000, of which $200,000 was preferred and $400,000 was common. When the Central Electric company was absorbed a few years later $50,000 additional stock was issued, making the total $650,000, but there was no additional issue at the time of the absorption of the Wisconsin Light and Power company.

Buyer Under Cover
Even the officials of the company are said to be in the dark as to the identity of the tentative purchasers. Mr. McGuire is a Chicago operator, but is not presumed to be acting for himself. From surface indications the possible purchasers may be figured down to four concerns, the supposition being that there is a connection between this deal and the pending sale of the property of the La Crosse Water Power company. They are the following:

Possible Buyers
The bondholders of the water power company.
The Kelsey Brewer company, Wisconsin.
H. M. Billsby, Chicago.
Samuel Insull, Chicago.
That the bondholders of the Water Power Company are the following:

SUFFRAGETTE IS WEEK'S FEATURE

English Comedienne's Burlesque on the "Militants" Riot at the Majestic

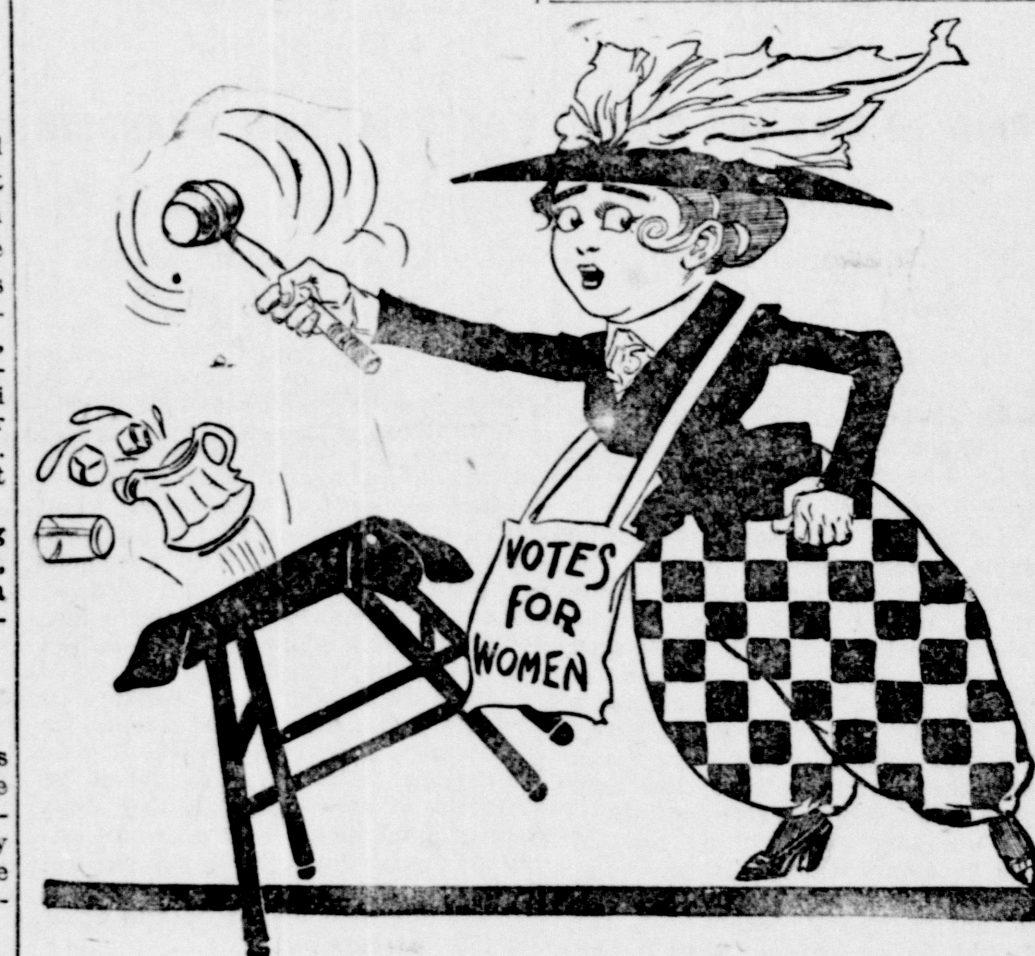

From the point of view of one who wants to laugh, Laurie Ordway, the militant suffragette, is the big hit at the Majestic this week. The English comedienne nearly started a riot last night with her funny impersonations. She sings three songs, all original and clever. Her real triumph, however, is her last, a satire on "militant suffragettes," along the English plan. It's a good song, but the most laughs came when she burlesqued a suffragette street speaker between verses. Shouting loudly for "order" as the audience rocked, Miss Ordway pounded with a huge gavel and demonstrated, with vigor if not conviction, the superiority of woman over man.

Seymour's Happy Family is a very good trained dog act, introducing new and original stunts by canine actors. The animals are trained to the last notch, and show clearly they understand everything that is desired of them. The act is handsomely produced.

The "Rag Trio" consists of three young men who play and sing syncopated music in original ways. They scored biggest on an original number of their own, purporting to be the sequel of "Casey Jones," or what happened after the noted engineer stuck to his throttle in the collision. A banjo, a piano and a man with a voice, all figure largely in getting the act over.

Loshe and Sterling have a remarkable acrobatic number, made up of ring and trapeze work. While many of their feats are new, it is the snap and "pep" with which they perform both old and new stunts that makes their act a hit. The finale of the number is a human pinwheel stunt on the trapeze.

Shriner and Richards in "Bits of Nonsense," run through a melange of jokes, singing and dancing which proved to be a success last night. The act is unique and the material new for the most part.

FARMER ABOUT TO AMPUTATE FINGERS

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Oct. 8.—With a knife between his teeth, ready, if the emergency arose, to amputate two of his fingers which had been caught in the gearing of a corn binder, Gust Dokken, a Lincoln county farmer, for half an hour called for assistance before his cries were heard by some employees, who hurried to the scene and released him.

Dokken had four horses hitched to the binder, and when something went wrong with the machine he reached under the seat to adjust the difficulty. Instantly two of his fingers became caught in the gearing, and all his efforts would not release them. With his other hand he managed to control his horses while he called for assistance. Fearing that if his horses started his entire arm would be pulled into the machine, he managed to get his knife ready to amputate the fingers should the animals become alarmed at his cries and start the machine.

Eckman's Alternative has brought about full recovery in many cases of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is one:

"Gentlemen: On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular peritonitis at St. Mary's hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alternative which I did. My weight at the time was 72 pounds. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 pounds and am absolutely well. Believing owe it to myself and others, I make this statement."

PUBLISH COLONEL'S ROUTE

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The progressive headquarters here today announced the itinerary of Col. Roosevelt for his western trip, which began at 4 p. m. today. The itinerary follows: October 8, Flint and Sarnaw, Mich.; 9, Houghton; 10, Duluth, Minn.; 11, Oshkosh, Wis.; and 13, Chicago; 14, Milwaukee; 15, Indianapolis; 16, Louisville, Ky.; 17, Cincinnati; 18, Cleveland; 19, and 20, Pittsburg; 21, Philadelphia; 22, Baltimore.

stumbled. Left alone the general had lighted a cigar and was walking slowly back and forth in front of the cars, waiting for the other to return, when a buggy, with two men in it, passed, the horse shying a bit and the general offering him assistance and advice. To his surprise they had not gone by more than three yards, when they stopped, tied his horse and came back on foot.

"First," said the general, as the four gathered around him in the light of the car lamps, "first I thought they were hold-up men. The lamps on my car had gone out and they did not see it, thought there was only one car, so there would not be many to defend it. Besides, I was the only one they had seen, and doubtless they surmised I was alone and they could have held me up easily."

"Father," cried Henrietta, "what did you do?"

"Before I could do anything the asked me the make of my car. I told them. They said it didn't look like a Packard, and I saw that they were looking at Will's car and hadn't seen mine, back near the Fannie R.: To be sure a face-lotion is far better than a face powder, but you will have to be careful what you use as most "liquid face powders" contain injurious ingredients that are likely to ruin your complexion. Try this inexpensive one which is all right: Dissolve four ounces of spurmax in a half-pint of witch hazel or hot water and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Rub this on your face, neck and arms, and it will give your skin a very pleasing, delicate tone. This lotion does not show or rub off like powder and will remove that shiny, sallow look from your skin. This preparation is a wonderful skin-beautifier and I find it excellent for rough, red or sallow skins, freckles and skin-pimples.

Mrs. David O.: The only reason why many hair and scalp-specialists advise against frequent shampooing is the danger that comes through the use of soap and inferior shampoos and mix it with one-half pint water and you will have a much better tonic than any of those ready-prepared tonics you have been buying. Brush your hair daily and twice a week apply this tonic to the scalp, rubbing it gently. This will do wonders to your dull, lifeless, falling hair, and put your scalp in a healthy condition. This tonic will make your hair soft, silky and lustrous. Keep the scalp clean by frequent shampoos with canthrox and you will not have further trouble with your hair.

Enid S.: Your headaches and generally despondent feeling very likely come from your weak, inflamed eyes. You should attend to the matter immediately or you may have to wear glasses permanently. Get an ounce of crystos and dissolve it in a pint of water. Put a few drops in each eye two or three times a day and I am sure it will strengthen your eyes wonderfully and remove your eye troubles generally. I find this a splendid remedy. It does not smart the eyes and is fine for dull, tired sore eyes that have that over-worked feeling.

Patrick Duffy was arrested on Burlington passenger train No. 58, upon its arrival here at 10:40 o'clock last night, charged with fighting. According to the story of the conductor, Duffy quarreled with another passenger and later started to fight. The conductor attempted to stop the fight, whereupon Duffy turned upon him. Police were notified from Grand Crossing and when the train arrived here Duffy was taken to central police station. When arraigned in police court this morning he was fined $10 and costs by Judge Edward Cronon.

HOTEL MEN IN DYNAMITE CASE

Clerks of Hostelrys All Over Country to Identify Defendants in Indianapolis Trial

FEDERAL COURT HOUSE, IN-DIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 8.—More than fifty hotel clerks and attaches were in Indianapolis today ready to testify in the dynamite conspiracy trial. They were expected to be the first witnesses called after the opening statements were concerned, and their evidence was expected to corroborate the confession of Orville Mc-Manigal, insofar as to verify the cir-cums and dates in his narrative, the fifth days instalment of which District Attorney Miller today recited to the jury.

Through these hotel men, the government hopes to trace McManigal,
James B. and John J. McNamara,
John Clark, Herbert S. Hockin, Frank C. Webb, Frank M. Ryan, and the other principal actors in the alleged dynamite plot through the five years of its working. All of these men were in almost every large city at different times, being seen around about the time of the structural explosions. They used aliases a part of the time, it is alleged, and the hotel men were expected to identify them.

1902, until December, 1911. The acts recorded in these minutes have been testified to at previous hearings.

GOLD DUST makes pot and pan spick and span

Pots and pans collect more dirt and grease than any other cooking utensil. The one best way of cleaning them is to use Gold Dust. Gold Dust not only takes off the outer surface, but digs deep after germs and hidden particles, and makes them as spotlessly clean and sanitary as when new.

If you want your pots and pans so bright you can see your face in them—your pots and kettles spotless and germ-proof, use Gold Dust in cleaning. It will do the work, too, in half the time of the ordinary cleanser
—and save most of your labor.
Gold Dust does the bulk of the work alone; you merely assist it.

Gold Dust is sold in 5c size

ages. The large package means

Thirty Games Are Sched-

Every Club

An indoor baseball league composed of teams from the graded schools of the city and playing games twice a week has been organized to take the place of the track and field meet for the graded schools. Because of the fact that such a large number of track meets have been held during the summer months it was decided to substitute indoor baseball for the fall meet and the annual graded school meet will be held next spring.
The league is scheduled to play games on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons each week until November 12 and the members of the organization are the Hamilton, Franklin, Lincoln, Jefferson and Washburn schools. Four games were played last week and they were won by the Washburn, Franklin and Hamilton schools.

The schedule calls for thirty games and each team will play two contests with each of the other schools entered. The team which wins the championship will be awarded a banner.

Following is the schedule:

STANDARD OIL TO CONTEST DE-CISION OF COMMERCE COM-MISSION PIPE LINES ARE COMMON CARRIERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Prepared to resist the order of the interstate commerce commission to the last extremity, a big array of lawyers for the Standard Oil and other companies which transport oil through interstate pipe lines, appeared today in the United States commerce court to ask permanent injunction against the commissioners' ordering the pipe lines common carriers and subject to its jurisdiction.

Case of Autosuggestion.

A man was watching a moving picture film of a religious ceremony in Burma. There were pictures of bell players or ringers among the Burmese musicians, while the actual orchestra, with the moving picture exhibition, was composed entirely of stringed instruments. Yet this man solemnly declared he heard the bells ringing. It was autosuggestion, but through that suggestion his sense of hearing had actually informed his brain of sounds that were not—had fied to him, as it were.

Sisters in Triple Wedding.

A triple wedding ceremony took place recently in Restalrig Parish church, near Edinburgh, Scotland.
The three brides were sisters, and they were all dressed alike in white silk crepon, with picture hats. They were given away by the father of one of the bridegrooms.

"Second Sight" for Blind.

A London scientist has devised an instrument which gives the blind a "second sight" through the sense of hearing. This novel invention is called the optophone. By its use blind persons can locate lamps, windows or high lights and "perceive" shadows.

Power company, if they bid in the property Friday, will do so upon the assurance that they have a market in sight for their product, is a reasonable business conjecture. Whoever goes on with that immense project must have the La Crosse field, and since the La Crosse Gas and Electric company terminated its contract to take the water power current when the short water disaster came the water power company has had no market where its largest one should exist. Thus, also, it is assumed that whoever buys the La Crosse Gas and Electric control is also figuring on the water power property.

The Keiley Brewer company, of Winona, owns the preferred stock in the Winona Railway and Light company and the Winona Gas company, and are now using water power current, the common stock in these properties being owned by the water power company. That the Brewer people have looked into the La Crosse properties recently is regarded as a possibly significant fact.

Mr. Billisy is the Chicago operator who recently bought the Minneapolis General Electric company properties. He is a large owner of electric plants, and has of late done some prospecting in this vicinity.

Samuel Insull is the big factor in the Commonwealth Edison company, of Chicago. He has bought up many electric propositions in Southern Wisconsin and Illinois, and is regarded as a possible buyer because he has shown some interest in both the water power plant and the local light and traction companies.

That a big transaction involving the La Crosse plants and the water power properties has been considered for some time is the deduction of citizens who have been attempting to analyze the motives that prompted the state railway commission to authorize the La Crosse Gas and Electric company to issue bonds to the amount of $3,000,000.

This sum, they say, is so far in excess of the value of the local light properties and so far beyond their ordinary needs for expansion as to indicate some large project in sight, and that this blanket mortgage is large enough to cover such a deal as the purchase of the water power company, which has approximately a million and a half invested, is now assumed.

In a long distance telephone message today John H. Roemer, president of the state railway commission, said that if that was the purpose of the company the commission had no knowledge of it, and that his first information about the proposed deal was conveyed by The Tribune's inquiry.

Mr. Roemer explained that companies of this sort frequently issue a large blanket mortgage without immediate intention of using more than a small portion of the funds it makes available, for the reason that should they mortgage only for their exact needs, and should need of more money later arrive the second issue would have to be a second mortgage, under which the sale of the bonds might be difficult. For instance, he said, the Milwaukee Street Railway company has a blanket mortgage authorizing a $95,000,000 bond sale, but it has actually issued under that mortgage only about $10,000,000 of bonds. For this reason, he said, the La Crosse Gas and Electric company's blanket mortgage might have no significance beyond the taking of an ordinary business precaution.

Had the company, as such, changed hands, the commission would have had official knowledge of the transaction, but the sale of stock by individuals to other individuals would come to the commission only as any individual might learn it through the public records in the office of the secretary of state.

Management May Change

Speculation as to whether, if the deal is consummated, the new control will make any change in the management, is being indulged in by those who are acquainted with the facts. The present management's

ADMINISTRATION NOT EXTRAVAGANT

E. M. Wing Proves that Expenses Have Not Grown Unduly Under Republican Rule

MANY ATTEND BIG MEETING

North Side Republican Club Membership Growing; Schlabach Is to Speak

State, county and city taxes, the alleged exorbitance of which will be the principal charge in the indictment of republicanism as drawn by the democrats this year, was the subject of E. M. Wing, vice-president of the Batavian National bank, in an address before the North Side Republican club at a meeting in Fjelstad's hall, St. Paul and Caledonia streets, last night.

The meeting was well attended by north side residents and Mr. Wing, who has made a thorough study of the taxation question, succeeded in making the intricate question clear to the club members.

Declining to criticize the city administration Mr. Wing contended, however, that the amount of taxes paid the state from this city is no less than it was ten years ago. He admitted that the amount of taxes levied against the property owners is greater but showed by statistics that the bulk of this went to defray bills incurred by the municipality. The charges made earlier in the year to the effect that the present state administration is wasteful and that the various departments are extravagant were answered by the speaker who proved that the charges were absolutely without foundation.

Plans for the perfection of the club organization were discussed but the entire list of ward committees will not be announced until this week.

Otto M. Schlabach, candidate for district attorney on the republican ticket, will address the club at its meeting next Monday on issues of this campaign. His address will be confined chiefly to the income tax question.

One of the important features of the club's next meeting will be the declaration of attitude towards Gov. F. E. McGovern. The feeling against the executive for his recent declaration for the bull moose is intense, but it is said, the consensus of opinion is that he should be supported to save the progressive program of the republican party.

Club members who are circulating membership papers contend that at the next meeting of the organization the membership will be in the neighborhood of 300.

M'VEAGH DENIES TELEPHONE STORY

Tells Clapp Committee He Did Not Say Morgan Discussed Funds with Harriman by Wire

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Wayne MacVeagh, former attorney general of the United States took the stand before the senate investigating campaign contributions committee when its sessions were resumed today for the purpose of giving his version of the mooted Morgan-Roosevelt contribution. MacVeagh came over from his home in Bryn Mawr last night, so that he could get his story into the record along with those of Mr. Charles Edward Russell and Judson Welliver, who had declared the former cabinet officer was responsible for a story that J. P. Morgan had a telephone conversation with either Roosevelt or E. M. Harriman regarding contributions in 1904.

Denies Statement
"I never could have made any such statement as no such event ever happened," said MacVeagh.

"I asked Welliver to come and see me. I told him I would talk to him only as a gentleman and not for publication. I told him of an incident that did occur—but not for publication."

"What was the incident?" Clapp interrupted.

MacVeagh parried. "A gentleman, now dead, told me something that an older gentleman, now dead, told him. I don't like to relate it under the circumstances."

Clapp insisted that MacVeagh disclose exactly what he told Welliver. He was backed by Senator Oliver in this.

new policy of expansion has made a favorable impression, and many people are of the opinion that Mr. McMillan would be an asset that might properly be listed as "good will."

HOUSTON COUNTY WILL HOLD FAIR

La Crosse Business Men Plan Big Representation on La Crosse Day; Athletes to Play

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED

La Crosse Ball Team to Play Caledonia Commercial; Badges for Those Who Attend

William Doerflinger, president of the board of trade, today appointed a committee to have charge of arrangements for the "People's Excursion" to Caledonia, which will take place Friday, October 11. The committee:

F. W. Sisson,
John C. Burns,
John Utermoehl.

The committee will secure the attendance of a band and will provide badges for all who attend.

Secretary Utermoehl lays particular stress upon the fact that this is a citizen's excursion, and urges all who can arrange for the trip to join the booster crowd which will touch elbows with Houston county neighbors and attend the smart little fair for which that county is celebrated.

The train will leave the Milwaukee depot at 8 a. m. and will arrive in La Crosse on the return trip at 5:50 p. m.

The La Crosse Athletics, the amateur city champions will meet the Caledonia Commercial on the diamond in the afternoon and both being first class aggregations, will give an exhibition of the national pastime which will doubtless prove a fitting climax to a season which has brought scores of victories to both teams. Anderson will probably shoot the twisters for the La Crosse club while Eiken will mount the mound for the Commercial.

Trains from the west will probably bring large numbers from other villages on the Reno-Preston branch to attend the fair which will be held under the auspices of the Caledonia Commercial club. Several other commercial organizations of southern Minnesota are booming the fair and will be represented by large delegations.

DEMOCRATS HOLD RALLY IN BANGOR

Coffland, Benezet and Wolfe to Speak at Meeting; Hood Opens State Campaign Here

Three automobile loads of La Crosse democrats will motor to Bangor this afternoon to attend the democratic rally which will be held in that city this afternoon. Kneen in his car, while the rest will go over with Sidney Law and A. C. Wolfe. W. N. Coffland, candidate for congress, L. P. Benezet and W. F. Wolfe of this city will address the meeting.

The state campaign will be opened in La Crosse this evening by C. L. Hood, candidate for the assembly, with a speech in Centennial hall. Mr. Hood will also deliver a speech Thursday evening at Central hall on the north side.

E. J. Kneen, chairman of the county committee, received a letter from Judge Henry of Newark, N. J., today announcing that Mr. Henry had been assigned to a speech in La Crosse in the near future.

MONTENEGRO AT WAR WITH TURKEY

Tiny Country Hands the Porte's Diplomat His Passports and Starts Action

MEANS BALKAN STRUGGLE

Powers Will Not Now Be Able to Stop Alliance from Starting Campaign

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Montenegro declared war against Turkey today, according to a dispatch from Cetinje, the Montenegrin capital, to Reuter's news agency. Heavy fighting was reported on the Turko-Montenegrin frontier.

Montenegro's reported declaration of hostilities against the sultan is especially serious because it will now be impossible for the powers to prevent Bulgaria, Serbia and Greece from following the little kingdom's example.

Montenegro alone would hardly be more than an annoyance to Turkey. Its population is about 50,000. As fighters they have such a reputation that even so powerful a country as Austria has hesitated to invade their little country, where, among their native mountains, waging a guerrilla campaign, it is agreed, would be practically unconquerable. For a successful war of offense, however, there are too few of them.

The Montenegrin consul general here this afternoon confirmed the news of his country's declaration of war against Turkey. His passports were handed to the Turkish charge d'affaires at Cetinje, and the Montenegrin consul in Constantinople has been ordered to return home at once.

COUNCIL TO HOLD A MEETING TONIGHT

Charles L. Burdick, of the firm of Alvord and Burdick of Chicago, who drew up the plans and specifications for the water plant which is being established in this city, arrived in La Crosse today to attend the special meeting of the council which will be held tonight to consider the completed plans which were sent to this city last Saturday. It is probable that the council at the meeting tonight will order the board of public works to begin advertising for bids in the various contracts that are to be let in the construction of the plant at once. Mr. Burdick came to La Crosse to explain any part of the plans and specifications that is not clear to the aldermen.

OVERCOME THE EARLY LEAD BY M'GRAW'S MEN

Klem of the Nationals behind the bat and Evans of the American on the base line. O'Loughlin of the Americans was on the left foul line and Riegler of the Nationals on the right foul line. The Giants took the field at 2:03 and with Hooper waiting at the plate Mayor GaGynor tossed out the ball to Big Chief Meyers. At the last minute McGraw elected to meet youth with youth and Matty walked to the bench while Big Jeff Tesreau trotted out to the slab for the Giants.

First Inning
BOSTON—Tesreau gave two balls before he got one over the base. Hooper watched the third go over, fouled the next and finally walked. Yerkes tried a hit and run but Doyle came in rapidly and he was out at first, Hooper being stopped at the second bag. Speaker drove an easy one to Doyle and was out at first. Hooper reaching third. Lewis dropped a long fly into deep center, which Snodgrass landed and the side was retired. No runs, no hits, no errors.

NEW YORK—Wood followed Tesreau's example by giving Devore two bad ones before he located the pan. He then put across two good ones and Josh fouled the fifth ball pitched. The sixth one came straight across but Devore was under it by a foot, fanning out. Doyle tipped the first one served him, but it was directly in Wagner's territory and Larry was thrown out at first. Snodgrass bounced one over Wood's head for the first single of the game and Red Murray with the memories of his hitless performance of a year ago chasing through his mind, stepped to the plate wearing a "do or pass away" expression. Murray waited for four wide ones. Merkle was up next. But his result was a pop-up into Wagner's waiting mitt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second Inning
BOSTON—Gardner first up in the second, saw two bad ones, a good one, a third ball and the second strike strike without swinging. He rolled to Fletcher, who fumbled and made no attempt to recover. Gardner stopped at first. Stahl attempted to sacrifice on the second ball pitched but only succeeded in forcing Gardner when Tesreau picked up his bat and threw to Doyle. Wagner swung in an attempt to bother Meyers, but the big Indian easily pegged out Stahl to Doyle, Doyle getting the put out. Wagner swung at another and fouled off one, before he succeeded in coaxing a pass from Tesreau. Cady let a ball pass before he drove a long high fly which Murray got against the bleacher fence. No runs, no hits, one error.

NEW YORK—Herzog claimed he was hit on the elbow by Wood's first ball, but Umpire Klem refused to see where the bark was off when Herzog exhibited his alleged nicked wing. Herzog swung and fouled, watched a wild pitch and the second ball before fouling again. He then popped to Stahl, who was not forced to move to make the catch. Meyers got a war whoop when he came to the plate, the first demonstration of a personal nature accorded any player in the game. Two were called on Meyers before he fouled. He swung at the fourth and missed, giving Wood his second strike out of the game. Fletcher fouled off one after two bad ones had gone over. He fouled another and then looked foolish when Wood curved an old-fashioned round house over the plate for the third strike and the third strike out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

The second half of the second inning saw Wood apparently well in control of himself with his smoke department in fine working order, as was demonstrated when he mowed down Meyers, counted on as one of the Giant's big men with four pitched balls, three of which were called strikes, the fourth being fouled off.

Third Inning
BOSTON—Wood's eye was evidently as good as his arm for after swinging twice he worked Tesreau for a pass. Hooper bunted down the first base line, sacrificing Smoky to second and giving Tesreau the opportunity for a beautiful assist to Merkle. Yerkes once more bounded to Doyle for an easy out at first. Wood stopping at third. Slugger Tris Speaker, famed for pinch hitting, came up with determination in his eye. He refused to swing more than once, however, and walked after watching four bad ones. Tesreau's strategy in walking Speaker panned out well for in the second ball pitched Lewis skied to Fletcher in short center. No runs, no hits, no errors. Tesreau was still wild, but his own pretty fielding and a choice catch by Fletcher helped him out of his holes.

NEW YORK—Tesreau responded to the applause by ignoring Wood's first offering which was a strike, and likewise the second and third were called on him, making Wood's third consecutive strike out and fourth of the game. Devore fouled off two into the upper stand and then varied the performance by fouling into the lower stand. Wood at once became more respectful and served him, though too high, Josh getting his pass. When Doyle was up the crowd broke into an attempt to rattle Wood. Doyle dropped a safe fly that Lewis could not reach in short left and Devore raced all the way to third, beating a throw from Lewis to Gardner by a magnificent slide. Gardner, standing on the bag got a nasty fall in the mix-up, but was not hurt. The crowd was in an uproar. Doyle drew up on second, getting credit for a double. It was the first demonstration of the game of the Giants' much-vaunted speed on the base line. Devore using excellent judgment. Snodgrass, with one hit already to his credit, was a victim of Wood's strike out prowess, swinging wildly at three successive ones. Murray singled over second, scoring Devore and Doyle. He was out trying to take second, Speaker, Cady to Wagner. With two runs in and the game in the lead the Giant rooters broke loose in the first real demonstration of the afternoon. Murray was cheered until the third inning opened, it being his first hit in seven successive world's games. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning
BOSTON—Gardner raised a high foul, giving Herzog opportunity for a pretty catch. Stahl missed three of Tesreau's best splitters a foot each, giving Ozark Jeff his first strike-out of the game. Wagner lifted a high foul that Merkle captured against the grand stand wall after a hard run. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Tesreau pitched only seven balls in this inning and was once more greeted with applause as he walked to the bench. Murray's smash in the previous inning seemed to have stirred the finger in the Giants and the opening stanza of the fourth saw the snappiest play, unheard of to this time.

NEW YORK—Merkle swung at one, watched a second and then permitted two good ones to be called on him, giving Wood his sixth strike-out. Herzog's boulder jumped over Wagner's head and rolled into short center for a single. Meyers bounded one off the plate into Wood's hand and was an easy out at first, Herzog being held at second. Fletcher fouled on one and heard the next two called on him, making the second strikeout for him and the seventh for Wood. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Despite the lead obtained by the Giants, Wood's pitching had been of the highest order, for, although he had walked two Giants, he had seven strikeouts to his credit.

Fifth Inning
BOSTON—Cady grounded out, Doyle to Merkle. Wood grounded to Merkle, who retired him, unassisted. Hooper struck out, swinging at the third one. It was Tesreau's second strikeout. Tesreau was putting everything he had on the ball, using only the spitball and fast ones. No runs, no hits, no errors.

NEW YORK—Tesreau was given another ovation as he came to the plate, the crowd showing its first inclination to shake off the frost. Jeff responded to the ovation the same as Meyers had—by striking out, going down on three pitched balls. Devore popped a high foul to Lewis near the left foul line. Doyle singled to left, just out of Gardner's reach. The Red Sox' third baseman recovered it and by a quick, hard throw to Wagner got Doyle trying to stretch his drive into a two bagger. Gardner made a great play when he knocked down Doyle's hit, which was a liner ticketed for the left field fence. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning
BOSTON—Yerkes flied out to Snodgrass in deep center. Speaker tripled to center, hitting a liner just out of Snodgrass' reach, and scored while Lewis was retired, Doyle to Merkle. Speaker's drive was the first of the game, as Snodgrass got his hands on the ball but was going at full speed and failed to hold it. Gardner struck out. One run, one hit, no errors.

NEW YORK—Snodgrass was safe on Wagner's error. Wagner knocked down Snodgrass' grounded and then juggled the ball as he picked it up to throw to first but was too late. Murray attempted to sacrifice but bunted into Stahl's hand and was doubled at first, Stahl to Wood, the first double play. Merkle popped an easy fly to Wagner. No runs, no hits, one error.

Seventh Inning
BOSTON—Stahl grounded out, Doyle to Merkle, hitting the first ball pitched. Wagner lined a hard single to center. Cady also sent a line single to left center and it looked as though the strenuous efforts put forth by Tesreau in the early innings were beginning to tell on the Giant finger. Wood got a rousing hand when he stepped up with two on the sacks and responded by grounding to Doyle and a great freak play followed. Doyle fell and dropped the ball, going to second to force Cady and Fletcher picked up the ball, stepping on the bag, retiring Cady. Doyle got an assist. This left Wagner on third and Wood on first. Hooper doubled just inside the right foul line, scoring Wagner with the tying run, Wood reaching third. Merkle made an heroic effort to stop Hooper's drive, which was a hard grounder. The Giants' first baseman leaped sideways for the ball, but just missed it. Yerkes sent a double to left, scoring Wood and Hooper, putting the Red Sox two runs to the good, and the crowd throughout the stands cut loose in a wild, old time demonstration. Speaker fanned three straight balls and the third strike was called. All of the Red Sox' drives were hard smashes and clean hits. Tesreau had obviously weakened and the smoke so much in evidence on his early delivery was greatly reduced. Three runs, four hits, no errors.

NEW YORK—Herzog struck out, missing the third one on a hard swing. Meyers was hit in the back by a pitched ball and took first. Luckily for the chief it was a curve instead of one of Wood's fast ones. Fletcher forced Meyers at second, grounding to Yerkes, who tossed the ball to Wagner. McCormick batted for Tesreau. Four runs, five hits, off Tesreau in seven innings. Tesreau had struck out four and given four bases on balls. McCormick flied high to Lewis in left. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Crandall replaced Tesreau in the box for the Giants and New York fans gave the faithful old reliable pitcher a big ovation. Boston fans danced and waved banners while their band played a lively tune.

Eighth Inning
BOSTON—Lewis grounded out, Fletcher to Merkle, Fletcher making a good running stop of Lewis' grounder, which was a grass cutter. Gardner fanned, the third strike being called. Stahl also fanned on three pitched balls. No runs, not hits, no errors.

NEW YORK—Devore grounded out, Wagner to Stahl. Doyle also grounded out, Wagner to Stahl. Snodgrass popped an easy fly to Gardner back of third. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning
BOSTON—Wagner doubled against the left field fence. Cady sacrificed, Herzog to Merkle, Wagner taking third. Wood grounded to Crandall, who chased Wagner back to third and then threw to Merkle, retiring the Red Sox pitcher. Hooper lined out to Doyle. No runs, one hit, no errors.

NEW YORK—Murray flied to Hooper. Merkle singled past second, Herzog singled to right, Merkle stopping at second. ### FIRE EXTINGUISHER IS DEADLY WEAPON

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 8.—Abe Zeller, a local merchant, yesterday began a movement to place patent fire extinguishers in the "deadly weapon" class. Abe knows they are deadly. He commutes into Des Moines on an interurban car, and yesterday there being no vacant seat in the smoking compartment, he seated himself on a trunk. The owner of the trunk, Mrs. E. E. Egelhoff, wife of a prominent Minneapolis grain dealer, ordered Abe to get off the trunk. Abe refused. Mrs. Egelhoff left the compartment, returning a moment later with a patent fire extinguisher. Holding the extinguisher a la Ty Cobb she struck Zeller over the head, inflicting a serious scalp wound, and rendering him unconscious. He didn't regain his senses until the station was reached. There the woman had him arrested, charging disorderly conduct. The judge fined him $10. His doctor bill amounted to $15.

It is difficult to convince a self-made man that he has cheated himself.

WILSON ANSWERS COL. ROOSEVELT

Democratic Nominee by Pat Story Replies to T. R.'s Nomination to Ananias Club

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 8.—For the first time in the history of the campaign, Governor Wilson, in a speech here, before about 3,000 people yesterday afternoon took notice of the fact that Colonel Roosevelt put him in the Ananias club when he spoke at Trinidad, Col., recently. The governor said: "Down in Virginia a powerful debater, who knew his subject thoroughly was in a joint political debate with a clumsy opponent known as Tom, who didn't know his subject. As the debate progressed and Tom got the worst of it, a friend from the rear of the hall yelled 'Call him a liar, Tom, and turn it into a fight.'"

"This campaign seems to have reached that point, but I want to declare emphatically again that I will not be drawn into such personalities, and to state again that until the third party shows how it expects to put through its humanitarian program by legalizing monopoly and asking to be kind, they have nothing to debate about."

Referring to the campaign contribution probe, Governor Wilson said: "The principal question seems to be whether Mr. Taft or Col. Roosevelt was the more intimately connected with the privileged influences which have controlled politics and government. If I were a cartoonist I would make a picture of the biggest trusts, singing as hard as they could sing, and the colonel in front of them leading the Hallelujah chorus. The Hallelujah part of it is the humanitarian program which the third party expects the trusts to carry out."

NOTED INVALID OF KENTUCKY

After Regaining Her Health Makes Few Interesting Statements for Publication

Lykins, Ky.—"For 20 years, I was a noted invalid," says Mrs. Martha Dingus of this place. "I believe I had every ailment that my sex is subject to."

We consulted numerous doctors, as well as traveled a great deal, thinking it would benefit my health, but all of this did me very little good.

Finally I was taken down with what I thought was heart trouble. I used all kinds of medicines, but got no better.

I then commenced taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and have been steadily improving ever since. Though now 46 years old, I am in better health than I have been in 20 years, and I give Cardui the credit for it. I feel it my duty to inform you what it has done for me."

No matter if your trouble has reached a critical stage, don't give up, before giving Cardui a trial.

You couldn't be in much worse condition than Mrs. Dingus, and yet she found relief in this medicine. Why not you?

Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act directly, in a remedial way, on the weakened womanly constitution.

In every community there are those who have been benefited by Cardui. Be one, yourself, in yours.

SETTLE TELEPHONE SUITS

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The long litigation over the United States Independent Telephone company losses was compromised yesterday. The amount paid to settle the 149 suits now on the supreme court calendar is $1,500,000, about 58 per cent of the total amount lost by investors in United States Independent Telephone bonds which was $2,600,000. This money will be contributed by the directors of the company. Among those bearing the loss is the estate of William F. Notker of St. Louis, Mo. The attorney for the investors will receive $525,000. Bernard Greffelder, a St. Louis attorney, will receive $150,000 of this amount.

TRUSTS ARE CHORUS

TAFT AND ROOSEVELT WOULD TEACH CORPORATIONS TO SING IS WILSON'S DECLARATION

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 8.—Before a crowd that overflowed the Grand Opera house at Pueblo, and loudly applauded his utterances, Governor Woodrow Wilson today attacked Taft and also Roosevelt, and the republican and progressive parties.

"Mr. Roosevelt's proposal," he said, "insofar as the third party platform relates to the trusts, is that the trusts are a chorus which the government shall undertake to teach to sing. Through the trusts, the third party expects to accomplish a program of socialist reform."

"Neither of the other parties proposes to set private monopoly aside, and unless we put it aside we cannot get our government back into our own hands. The proposal of both the other parties is that the government be administered by a board of trustees, and the only issue between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft is rivalry as to who shall be president of the board."

SCORES SENSATIONAL RELIGION

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Bishop W. F. McDowell deplored the use of sensationalism in religious work in an address today to the Rock River Methodist Episcopal conference. "The promises of God," he said, "will not stand the weight of a feather if they are used in a spirit of sensationalism or curiosity." A resolution was adopted by the conference asking legislation prohibiting the sale of liquor within a radius of five miles instead of one mile of the naval training schools north of here.

Gold Trodden Into Floor.

The wooden floor of a jewelry workshop becomes valuable after a few years because of the gold dust that is tramped into the pores of the wood and into the cracks. A manufacturing jeweler who moved not long ago got permission from the landlord to tear up the old floor and replace it with a new one after he moved. The boards and dirt were burned to ashes and yielded a profit of $125 in gold after all expenses of the new floor and the smelting were paid.

The Remaining Good.

If you lose heart about your work, remember that none of it is lost, that the good of every good deed remains and breeds and works on forever, and that all that fails and is lost is the outside shell of the thing, which, perhaps, might have been better done; but better or worse has nothing to do with the real spiritual good which you have done to men's hearts.—C. Kingsley.

Truth in Old Adage.

In children the training of the senses, so necessary, is for the most part unconscious and self-attained, as in games, yet the science of psychology has invented tests to aid such training of the senses. There seems to be a lot of truth in the old saying: "Do not believe all you see, nor half you hear."

To Illustrate.

Examples as well as precept was furnished to the youthful autograph fiend who wrote to one of the world's richest men, asking for an "autograph sentiment" and inclosing a two-cent stamp for his reply. Over his opulence's signature came the prompt response—on a post card: "A penny saved is a penny earned."—Lippincott's.

Royalty of Virtue.

If there be no nobility of descent, all the more indispensable is it that there should be nobility of ascent—a character in them that bear rule so fine and high and pure that as men come within the circle of its influence they involuntarily pay homage to that which is the one pre-eminent distinction, the royalty of virtue.—Bishop Henry C. ### DENOYER SPRAINS ANKLE IN GAME

Normal School Teacher Trips; Football Team to Play Milwaukee Normal

Professor L. P. Denoyer of the department of geology of the Normal recently suffered a sprained ankle when in a game of indoor baseball outdoors, with some students, he tripped over an exposed root and as a consequence has been laid up for the past few days. He is rapidly recovering from the effects of the hurt, although he must still use a cane.

Marcus Byers, who broke his right forearm in the Wiona game, is back at his studies. His arm is still in a cast and it is probable that he will have to remain a spectator for the rest of the season.

The normal school brass band is an organization of about thirty members who are playing a very good brand of band music. Under the direction of Professor Cotton the boys are playing together in great style and the next football game here will witness the band adding to the applause column of the normalites.

At the chapel exercises yesterday a rousing "enthusiasm" meeting was held at which Coach Carter and Professor Moore were called on to tell what happened to what should have happened last Saturday. The football team is not at all downhearted at the showing made and have profited in many ways by the high school game. The two teams will meet in scrimmage tonight and often in the next few weeks. Milwaukee will be the next team to face but as they were beaten by Beloit 74 to 3 an even contest is anticipated.

TWO WOULD HEAD CLUB FEDERATION

Racine and Green Bay Women in Contest for Presidency of Women's State Federation

JANESVILLE, Wis., Oct. 8.—It is probable there will be an insurgent faction in the convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's clubs, which was called to order at ten o'clock this morning, by Mrs. William Howard Crosby, of Racine, state president.

In spite of the engrossing subjects of the annual program, the politics of the federation is the great topic discussed by those of the advance guard now in the city.

The political situation is exciting. A strong sentiment has developed in favor of Mrs. William P. Leek, wife of the Rev. Mr. Leek, of Racine, for the next president, and it is now prophesied with some assurance that she will be nominated from the floor.

Mrs. John T. Martin of Green Bay, is the chairman of the nominating committee. She is a close friend of Mrs. J. A. Strathearn, of Kaukauna, and it has leaked from other members that the committee finally has given the nomination of president to Mrs. Strathearn. It is known that at least four, instead of the customary one, meetings were held before the committee decided upon its slate.

made by congress for the benefit of Indians, and that he or she thereby relinquishes all tribal relations, and all right to claim or receive such aid, shall be entitled, on such oath being filed and recorded, to vote at all elections held in this state, if he or she is otherwise qualified. The oath so taken, on being corroborated as to the residence and tribal relations of such person by the affidavit of a qualified elector, shall be filed in the office of the clerk before whom it was taken and recorded by him in a book to be provided for that purpose, upon such person paying to said clerk the sum of one dollar.

6. No person under guardianship, non compos mentis or insane shall be qualified to vote at any election, nor shall any person convicted of treason or felony be qualified to vote at any election unless restored to civil rights.

Section 2. The question whether the foregoing provisions of this act shall take effect and be in force, shall be submitted to a vote of the people of this state, in the manner provided by law for the submission of an amendment to the constitution, at the next general election to be held in November, 1912. If approved by a majority of all the votes cast on that subject at such election, it shall take effect and be in force from and after such approval by the people; otherwise it shall not take effect or be in force. Upon the ballot shall be printed, "Shall Chapter (insert on the ballot the number of chapter) of the laws of 1911, entitled 'An act extending the right of suffrage to women' be adopted."

Section 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 2, 1911.
Dated this 5th day of Sept., 1912.
C. H. RAWLINSON,
County Clerk.

WANTS STRONG WILLS ON JURY

Becker Insists on Young Married Men with Blue Eyes and Determination

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Young married men, preferably with blue eyes and strong of will, may try Police Lieutenant Becker for his life. When court resumed its sessions today only one juror was in the box.

Probably never before in the history of a noted criminal case has the accused been the factor that has impressed on McIntyre that he does not want weaklings on the jury. Men of positive character who will not be swayed by argument, but who will weigh the evidence for what it is worth, is what he wants, he says. He thinks that his own story will bring him freedom. And in that belief he is ably seconded by Mrs. Becker, who, from a seat near her husband, is lending him the moral force of her presence.

NOTED TWIN CITY WOMAN IS DEAD

Mrs. Perry Starkweather, Noted Philanthropist and Club Woman, Is Stricken

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Mary L. Starkweather, head of the women and children's department of the state labor bureau and prominent club woman and charity worker of the Twin cities, died in the Union depot at St. Paul early yesterday following an attack of heart disease. Mrs. Starkweather was 55 years old and lived at 625 Grand avenue, St. Paul.

Mrs. Starkweather was preparing to go to Madison, Wis., where she was scheduled to make an address before the Federated Women's clubs at the University of Wisconsin. She was accompanied to the depot by her husband, Perry Starkweather. While walking beside him on her way from the depot to the train, Mrs. Starkweather suddenly keeled over into her husband's arms. She was assisted into a waiting room, where she died thirty minutes later.

SOX AND GIANTS READY FOR GAMES

1912 World's Series Opens with the Two Champs Playing at Polo Grounds

GIANTS MAY PITCH TESREAU

Wood Almost Certain to Twirl for Sox; Big Jeff May Oppose Him

(By Grantland Rice)

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The charge of the night brigade is over. The storming legion which braved a driving gale and gathering under the cold gray stars at midnight to lay siege to the Polo turnstiles is either through the gates and over the walls or else repulsed with frightful slaughter.

There are cheers for those who reached the happy haven of a seat and tears for those who fell almost within sight of the green spun field, but our attention now passes from the non-combatants to the embattled lines striving for the championship of balldom's world—for the throne which the great Mackian machine was forced to abdicate after a two years reign.

New York has come back to challenge again—but the powerful Boston machine had battered the Philadelphia legion from the paths for the honor of representing the American league in its attempt to wrest off its third successive championship just as Chicago and Pittsburg did for the National circuit in 1907, 1908 and 1909.

History has repeated itself in an unconscious way. In 1907 and 1908 the Chicago Cubs won the National league title and the world's series crown. In 1909 to the surprise of the experts, the Cubs fell before Pittsburg and Pittsburg attached the third straight championship win for the older league.

No one figured that the old Cub machine could be beaten. The same thought surrounded the Athletics. They won in 1910 and 1911 the championship of their own league and all civilized spots, only to fall unconsciously, as the Cubs in one of their own league rivals. New York enters this series today with a better ball club than she dashed in vain against the Athletics. A better ball club by the addition of Tesreau to the pitching staff and by another year's experience.

Whether or not Boston will show a stronger front than the man handling Mack of 1911 remains to be seen. Regardless of this the Red Sox are poised up the threshold of the ninth modern championship with a powerful club, strong in attack through the flashing of many deadly bludgeons—strong in defense through one of the greatest clubmen that ever tore off a strike out in the crisis of battle.

But this portion of the dope is now past history. No angle of comparison has been left beyond inspection, and the throngs which started for the park this afternoon were involved mainly in discussions as to whether McGraw would send in Mathewson or Tesreau against the redoubtable Wood. And mingled with the discussion of the slab men to be used was a buzz of gossip as to how long the series would likely run. In this respect both New York and Boston critics—not including the more partisan—were alike. Both figured it was not only likely to extend to six games, but like the Pittsburg-Detroit series of 1909, showed tendencies of a seven game hurly-burly where the last few rounds might decide the issue.

This dope was based on the fact that while Joe Wood on form might master and overpower any man McGraw might send against him, Tesreau, Mathewson or Marquard were likely to upset Collins, O'Brien and Bedient, and thereby put it up to the Smoky Joe party to win the deciding game of the series at the end.

It is generally conceded among the unbiased that Boston has the edge on general form unless Tesreau, Marquard and Mathewson pitch to the top of their form where nothing short of a smashing, rushing attack could beat them down.

But, why worry over these details now with the two clubs harnessed for the fray, and when within a few short hours the first flash will inform from six to ninety million pop-eyed fanatics what has occurred in the "jump" game?

Another great feature now interesting the populace at large is the name of the 1912 world's series hero—sun-kissed athlete who will string along with George Rose, Christy Mathewson, Babe Adams, Jack Coombs, Frank Baker—luminaries of other wide campaigns. He may be a Yerkes, a Murry, an O'Brien, or a Devore. And then again form may run to the finish and he may be a Speaker, a Wood or a Doyle.

There is plenty of star talent in this series which may continue at the heights or topple to the abyss below. It remains for Wood and Tris Speaker to cap the climax of their greatest year, or to have the lustre blown off within the period of seven days.

The same is true of Doyle, Meyers, Mathewson, the Giants' stars in 1911.

It is a noticeable incident that in this series the two predominating are working the line-up of youth. Joe Wood is only 22, and Tesreau has just ticked off his 23rd. The Tesreau romance is a notable one in a notable game. Three months ago he was almost unknown—a big, raw recruit, just out of the underbrush, with but little experience. And yet today he stands out as the main hope of his people in a fight for the world's championship. Three months ago, huddled up on the bench he sat and watched Mathewson and Marquard carry off the head-lines. Today all Giant supporters are turning more to Tesreau than to either of those who had the spotlight through mid-July.

Beyond the pitchers no two other athletes will be watched as closely as Doyle and Speaker, the two slashing swats picked as the most valuable workers of the pennant winning year.

Both are left-handed hitters, both are fast, and both will fight to a finish in a clash of this type. Speaker does his best work amid the fanfare, being inclined often to drift along and take it easy when not under pressure. And it is at a crisis of this sort that Doyle comes forward as one of the most dependable ball players of the game.

One hundred and seventy-nine thousand, eight hundred and fifty-one fans saw the series of 1911. If this series goes to six games, the count will flutter along the 200,000 line, smashing all records for attendance ever set.

This detail was shown in the size of the advance guard, which gathered for the charge last night. The record for this time is nothing to report until the kick-off boom, the brasses crashes into the pit, and the tires begin to career along the course.

The mother who acts as chaperon is a matchmaker in disguise. If men and women thought twice before marrying there would be fewer divorces.

MATTY, TESREAU AND RUBE ARE IN FORM

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Here is the last word of the ball-player writers covering the world's series, and the rival managers:

Hugh Jennings—Ten days ago I predicted the Red Sox would win, and I still believe they are the better team, but it's going to be a harder fight than I thought. McGraw tells me Mathewson, Tesreau and Marquard are all in form.

Ty Cobb—Boston will win. Wood, Collins and O'Brien are better pitchers than Mathewson, Marquard and Tesreau.

Rube Marquard—Boston won't win over two games. I hope I pitch against Wood. I pitched against him several times in the American association and beat him. The Indian sign is on him.

Manager Jake Stahl—There is not a Boston player who doubts for a minute our ability to win.

Manager McGraw—I feel more confident than I did last fall against the Athletics, and my players feel the same way.

GIANTS PLAY FOR SAILORS' BENEFIT

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Five thousand of Uncle Sam's jackies from the fleet in the North river and 15,000 regular fans saw the Giants and Yankees play an exhibition game yesterday afternoon.

The game was for the sailors' benefit. The sailor suit was a pass.

It was said McGraw slipped over a sharp trick by scheduling the game. He was credited with playing the local American leaguers to point his team for the world series opening today with the Red Sox. But such was not the case. McGraw used as many substitutes as he could. The Yanks also put in a patched-up lineup. Almost every play, good or bad, was applauded. Rooting clubs practiced in an effort to rattle the Red Sox for today.

CHICAGO CITY SERIES ON

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The opening battle of the civil war—to decide the baseball championship of Chicago, will be fought this afternoon between the White Sox and the Cubs at the Sox park. On the firing lines will likely be big Ed Walsh for the Sox and Jimmy Lavender for the Cubs.

IDEAL WEATHER FOR FIRST GAME

Sun Is Shining in New York, Where Sox and Giants Meet Today

LARRY GARDNER IS INJURED

Boston Third Baseman will Play, but His Third Finger Is Almost Broken

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A tinge of fall weather combined with a cloudless sky and bright sun to make today just right for the opening game of the world's series between the Giants and Red Sox.

Out of town fans who forgot overcoats and warmer clothing will be comfortable when Billy Tatum, umpire in chief, calls "Play ball."

The last hours before the big battle today between the Giants and the Red Sox today found the American league champions resting quietly in an uptown hotel, where they spent the night. Only one Red Sox is unfit, Larry Gardner, the star third baseman, will have to grip the ball with his first and second fingers and thumb when he shoots it across the field to Manager Stahl. His third finger, split and almost broken at the first joint four weeks ago, is bandaged and taped to the little finger. Gardner will be able to play, his team mates say, but another rap on the same spot would rob Boston of one of its greatest offensive and defensive stars.

There wasn't a nervous Red Sox. Manager Stahl looked a little more anxious than usual, but that was the only sign of anxiety in the invaders' camp. Nor was there a sign of over-anxiety among the Giants. McGraw's men assembled at the Polo grounds, behind closed gates, this morning for the final talk. The National league champions had their last workout Monday afternoon. McGraw hadn't said who will pitch, but it was considered a safe bet that Matty had been chosen.

Three hundred Boston fans, in white on red hats, arrived early today. They are regular rooters, seasoned from helping their team win the American league flag. They
